The electors of Middle Woodberry township to meet at the house of Henry Fluke in the village of Woodberry.

The electors of Woodberry borough to meet at the house of Wm. M. Pearson in said borough

At which time and places the qualified electors will elect by ballot:

TWENTY-SIX PERSONS to be Electors of PRESIDENT and VICE PRESIDENT of the United States.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be elegible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, farther provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the FIRST TUESDAY OF NOVEMBER, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as an Inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said Inspectors or ether of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white citizen of the age of twenty-one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty two years who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, and the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election and shall also swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove within the district for the purpose of voting.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

Election Proclamation.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of an election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

And the election laws of the Commonwealth further provide that "The Inspectors, Judges and clerks shall, before entering on the duties of their offices, severally take and subscribe the oath or affirmation hereinafter directed, which shall be administered to them by any judge, alderman or justice of the peace, but if no such magistrate be present, one of the inspectors of the election shall administer the oath or affirmation to the other judge and inspector, and then the inspector so qualified shall administer the oath or affirmation to him.

"The inspectors, judge and clerks required by law to hold township and general elections, shall take and subscribe the several oaths and affirmations, required by the 19th, 20th and 21st sections of the act of the 24 day of July 1839, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this commonwealth," which oaths or affirmations shall be prepared and administered in the manner prescribed in the 18th and 22d sections of said act, and in addition to the power conferred by the 18th section of said act, the judge, or either of the inspectors, shall have power to administer the oaths prescribed by said act, to any clerk of a general, special or township election.

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each inspector, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will duly attend to the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person, other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly, nor indirectly, interested in any bet, or wager on the result of this election.'

"The following shall be the oath or affirmation of each judge, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will as judge duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying on the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent any fraud, deceit or abuse, in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote, or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election.'

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each clerk, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district, wherein such elector resides, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election.'

The qualified electors will take notice of the following act of Assembly, approved 12th day of March, 1865: AN ACT, Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

Section 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive, or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

Section 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot, or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

Section 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

JAMES R. KELLEY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DAVID FLEMING,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirtieth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

A. G. CURTIN.

Election officers will take notice that the act entitled "A Further Supplement to the Election Laws of this Commonwealth," disqualifying deserters from the army of the United States from voting, has recently been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, is now null and void, and that all persons formerly disqualified thereunder are now lawful voters, if otherwise qualified. The act decided unconstitutional by the Supreme Court provided as follows:

"A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO THE ELECTION LAWS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH.

Whereas, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act to amend the several acts herctofore passed, to provide for the enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged, or relieved from the penalty, or disability therein provided, are deemed, and taken, to have voluntarily relinquished, and forfeited, their rights of citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof:

And whereas, persons, not citizens of the United States, are not, under the constiution and laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this commonwealth:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

Section 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive, or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

Section 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot, or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

Section 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts, The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

SOLDIERS, HEAR YOUR OLD COMMANDER!

Letter From Gen. McClellan.

He Supports Seymour and Blair.

The following manly and eloquent letter from the pen of Gen. Geo. B. McClellan, was read before the great Democratic meeting in New York, on Monday night. It speaks for itself and we ask all his old companions in arms, during the late war to read it.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3, 1868.

DOUGLAS TAYLOR, Chairman, &c.

MY DEAR SIR—I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to preside over the Democratic meeting on Monday next.

I have long since determined to abstain from further participation in political life, and therefore find myself compelled to decline the honor you proffer me. I should, however, be glad to attend the meeting as a private citizen, did not engagements of a domestic nature, rendered imperative by my long absence from the country, detain me from the city upon the day in question.

I gladly avail myself of this opportunity to express my continued hearty sympathy with the democratic cause—(loud cheers)—and my ardent wishes for the success of those constitutional principles for which the recent war was undertaken by the North.—Separated as I thus am from the distinguished soldier who has been chosen as the leader of our opponents, I know that you will agree with me in the highest respect for the services he has rendered our country; but it is my conviction that the measures of the party which has placed him in nomination are but continuations of strife, and can never restore peace or constitutional supremacy, and thus complete the work which he and other brave soldiers so ably commenced.—The war was only the first epoch in the history of the struggle in which we have been so long engaged.

The work of the soldier is, I trust, forever ended, and it remains for the people to fulfil the great objects for which they or their sons and brothers were called to the field.

A restored Union of States and hearts; an invigorated constitution; to be warmly and faithfully supported; the maintenance of the national credit inviolate; a re-establishment of national and State rights in all their integrity—and thus true harmony and lasting peace—these are the objects for which every citizen should now strive; and believing these to rest in the success of the democratic cause, by the election of the eminent statesmen selected to represent the party, it is my intention to sustain that cause as a private citizen. (Renewed applause.)

With the reqqest that you will convey to the gentlemen of the committee, and my other friends for whom you act, my sincere thanks for the compliment they have paid me,

I am, most truly yours,
GEORGE B. McCLELLAN.

LET US HAVE PEACE.—"Martial law," says General Grant in an official communication on Southern affairs, bearing date January 29, 1867; "martial law would give security, or comparatively so to all classes of citizens, without regard to race or color, or political opinions, and could be continued until society was capable of protecting itself, or until the State is returned to its full relations to the Union. The application of martial law to one of these States would be a warning to all, and if necessary, could be extended to others."

How trippingly this reads, does it not? And what a light it throws on the manner in which, if General Grant be elected, we are to have peace. You will notice that this delaration of martial law being a panacea for civil ills bears date January 29, 1867, or prior to the passage of the first reconstruction act whereby, in the language of said act, these Southern States were "divided into military districts and made subject to military authority of the United States." Military rule was not set up in the South by Congress till March, 1867, and yet in January of that year General Grant favors martail law, and says, as though it were quite a matter of course, that the application thereof to one "would be a warning to all, and, if necessary, could be extended to others."

In the light of this revelation it is easy to see what is meant. "Let us have peace," says Grant. How? say we. "Martail law would give security" is his response.

Recent rains in Texas have caused a great growth of grass.

THE GRANT TAX-MILL.

The Radical tax-mill is a great machine. It has ground out of the laboring masses of this country fifteen hundred millions of dollars during the past three years. It has over two billions of dollars to grind out of them yet, before the poor man's toil is paid, besides the gold toil that is taken from him yearly as interest on the rich man's bonds. Into its hopper goes the sweat and toil and aches and earnings of the toiling millions; out of it comes bread for indolent negroes, big pay for thieving officials, gold interest for bondholders and riches for treasury robbers. It is the people who turn this mill. They run it to grind up their earnings to give to others. It's a nice machine, ain't it tax-payers. Take hold and keep on,

Winding and grinding,
Round goes the mill;
Winding and grinding,
It never stands still.
Ask not if neighbor
Grind great or small—
Spare not your labor,
Pay your toil all.

Winding and grinding, round goes the mill;
Winding and grinding, it never stands still,
Niggers and Bondholders must have their fill.

Winding and grinding,
Work through the day,
Grief never minding,
Grind still away!
What though tears dropping,
Rust as they fall?
Have no wheel stopping,—
Gold bonds claim all.

Winding and grinding, round goes the mill;
Winding and grinding, it never stands still,
Niggers and Bondholders must have their fill.

SOME of the campaign arguments that appear in Radical journals are marvelous beyond all parallel. For example: "Gen. Lee swore to support the Constitution ten times, and then took arms and attempted to destroy it;" therefore Mr. Grant ought to be elected President.

To answer this "argument" on its merits, a Democratic logician should say, "Callicott swore, every time he received an office from the Radical administration, that he would not steal the people's money, and then stole all he could lay hands on, therefore, brass buttons are big things!"

The entire stable of Jacobin campaign literature consists in denunciations of something that Lee, or Wade Hampton, or some other conquered rebel, did or said, at some former period of his existence. Perhaps this line of argumentation is found necessary to those who are paid, or except pay for supporting a corrupt administration. Finding no good to say of Radical leaders, the only way to defend their faults is to make it appear that they might possibly have been worse.

Thus, Grant is not the worst of men, because some rebel leader was a worse one. Callicott was not the greatest thief in the country, because it is possible to suppose that Floyd was a greater. The author of "All hail, thou flaunting lie!" was not the vilest traitor, because his treason took only the form of words, while traitors less cowardly gave that crime the form of actions.

Of such insane drivel is the great bulk of Jacobin campaign literature made up.—Chicago Times.

THE BUTLER TEN THOUSAND.—Speaking of the appropriation of $10,000 by Congress for Impeachment—that disgraceful record in American history—the National Intelligencer says it was "ten thousand dollars thrown away to vent the malevolent spite of Benjamin F. Butler, James M. Ashley, and men of that stripe. Ten thousand dollars of the people's money squandered in the effort to depose a President for no other crime than that of differing in opinion from the majority of his accusers! The judgment of the American people has pronounced against the partisan malice which sought to strike down a President for the exercise of his constitutional power in the selection of his own confidential advisers. Let that same people not forget that freak of a Radical Congress not only required a direct outlay of ten thousand dollars, but consumed weeks that ought to have been devoted to judicious legislation, while it involved the country in needless agitation, disturbing business, repressing enterprise, and retarding the prosperity of the nation.

GEN. GRANT WANTED.—The Age says that without any desire to disparage General Grant, we ask the simple question, whether in any or all of the fifteen or twenty biographies that have been written of him, there is recorded a single instance in which he manifested the slightest sympathy for suffering humanity, where he relieved pinching want, spoke a kindly word to the widow or the orphan, or in any manner or form manifested an interest in the workingman's welfare? Whoever heard of General Grant visiting a hospital, comforting by his presence and words the sad hearts of his mutilated soldiers, or conveying to bereaved wives, mothers and children, a single expression of condolence? Did anybody ever?

VAIN MAN.—Whilst thou art building castles, the carpenter is building thy coffin. While deceitful influences are gilding thy future prospects, the painter is leisurely putting the varnish upon the casket that is being fitted for thy reception. While thou art striving hard to distinguish thyself among thy fellows, the marble works is fitting the slab that shall mark thy grave. While you are querying as to the wherewithal you shall be clothed, the materials for your burial suit are upon the tradesman's shelf. You add field to field, and anxiously reach out for more; but go to the graveyard and stake out the lot to which death will soon assign you. "Then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?"

EARLY RISING.—A young farmer found that he was getting reduced in circumstances. He went to a friend to ask his advice. This friend, with a very grave face said, "I know of a charm that will cure that; take this little cup, drink from it every morning of the water you must get at such a spring. But remember you must draw it yourself at five o'clock or the charm will be broken."

Next morning the farmer walked across his fields, for the spring was at the further end of his estate, and spying a neighbor's cows which had broken through the fence, and were feeding on his pasture, he turned them out and mended the fence. The hands were not yet at work; when they came loitering after their proper time, they were startled at seeing their 'master' so early. "Oh!" said he. "I see how this is; it comes of my not getting up in time."

This early rising soon became a pleasant habit; his walk and cup of water gave him an appetite for breakfast, and the people were like himself, early at work. He soon acknowledged that the advice his friend had given was as good as it was simple.

THE NEW POSTAGE STAMPS.—The Postmaster General has awarded the contract for the supply of stamps to the department for the ensuing four years to the National Bank Note Company of New York. The new stamps will be somewhat smaller than those in use at present, but they are of a superior style and finish, with a novelty in design. The two cent stamp contains an engraving of a post boy on horseback in full speed. The three cent has a locomotive under full head of steam, the great carriers of our domestic service. The five cent stamp contains a head of Washington. The ten cent, the finest of all in design and execution, has a miniature engraving of the Declaration of Independence, executed with such delicacy and precision that the picture suffers nothing under a magnifying glass. The twelve cent stamp has an ocean steamship, and the thirty cent has a finely executed engraving of the surrender of Burgoyne. When it is considered that over a million stamps are issued daily the importance of this contract is at once evident.

FOLIAGE.—The delicate beauty of the spring foliage of trees has disappeared; everything geeen has deepened its color and the leaves have expanded to their full size. Instead of an exquisite delicacy in size and color, the foliage is rich, heavy and luxuriant. This is the season of nature's most voluptuous growth. There are three particular periods in the life and death of foliage each year, in which the leaves are peculiarly beautiful. The beauty of each period is entirely distinct from that of either of the others. The first has passed this year—the germ period; the second we have also enjoyed; the third comes with the autumn, the many tinted season. Between each period the time of transition reminds us of past beauty or suggests that which is coming.

A Washington special of October 12ht has the following: General Reynolds' order against citizens voting for President in Texas has been received here and is objected to by Mr. Johnson, who to-day issued a proclamation calling the attention of the citizens of Texas to their rights under the Constitution, and also announcing that the reconstruction acts of Congress contain no specific clause denying the right of citizens of any State to vote for President at a general election. This, of course, is a well defined conflict of authority in which the President will come out the victor, as General Reynolds will no doubt withdraw the order, unless General Grant insists that it is a legal and proper one, which in his present position he is not likely to do. It is probable, therefore, that all of these States will vote for President and Vice President in November.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.—Let the business of every one alone, and attend to your own. Don't buy what you don't want. Use every hour to an advantage, and study to make a liesure hour useful. Think twice before you spend a dollar; remember you will have another to make for it.—Look over your books regularly, and if you find an error trace it out.—Should a stroke of misfortune come upon you in your business, retrench, work harder, but never fly the track. Confront difficulties with unflinching perseverance, and they will fly at last; then you will be honored; but shrink, and you will be despised.

A New Orleans paper says that the proprietor of an extensive trunk establishment denounces the course of the Democratic papers in the city, though an unmitigated Democrat himself.—He has a large variety of carpet bags on hand, and has been unable to sell a solitary one for many weeks, though offered at the lowest price of the manufacturer. Many traveling men will rather shoulder a trunk, than carry an easy, portable concern that conveys so much political significance.

MONEY.—Men work for it, beg for it, steal for it, starve for it, and all the while, from the cradle to the grave, nature and God are thundering in our ears the solemn question:—"What shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world and lose his own soul?" The madness for money is the strongest and lowest of passions; it is the insatiate Moloch of the human heart, before whose remorseless altar all the finer attributes of humanity are sacrificed. It makes merchandise of all that is sacred in the human affections, and even traffics in the awful solemnities of the eternal.

Chinese hemp is successfully grown in Kentucky. The longest stalks measure over sixteen feet.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, of Massachusetts, has been making a tour through the South, and has delivered speeches at several points. At Greensboro', N. C., he remarked that he had learned more of the Southern people, and their feelings and sentiments, during the last few days than he could have learned in Massachusetts in a lifetime. He was astonished at the condition of the Southern people, and their wasted and neglected fields. If the North could see it as he had done, all our trials would be at an end. He was pleased to know that amicable relations existed between the whites and blacks, and that no animosity existed among the whites. He said he felt justified in branding as a falsehood that the Democratic party wanted to re-establish slavery in the South; and he expressed the strong conviction that the constitutional party, headed by Seymour and Blair, would triumph. If so intelligent a citizen as Mr. Adams has been compelled to confess that he had no proper conception of the condition and feelings of the South till he went there, it is not to be wondered at that so many of the Northern people are misled.

MR. SPEAKER COLFAX told his hearers when he entered the campaign in Indiana last Thursday, that "self-respect and propriety forbid my entering the political arena to anaylise, discuss and criticise the principles and policy of those arrayed against us. In regard to the principles, policy, platform, and letters of the Democratic candidates and party, my lips are sealed." What he does enter the campaign for, would have remained forever a mystery, had it not of been for the sentence which follows.—"One subject there is upon which I can always speak, and that is the glorious record made by this noble, patriotic Republican party." Taking this for a text he goes on with a carefully prepared review of the past ten years, proving to his own satisfaction that every good and perfect thing had been accomplished by Radicalism and that the nation itself was now a monument of its "glorious work." Colfax is a second Nero.

A negro riot at Opelousas, Louisiana resulted from the caning of a white Radical editor. The negroes rallied to the support of their champion, armed. Several bodies of negroes were met and dispersed by the efforts of sensible, moderate men, both negroes and white. One body, however, of 25 or 30, led by a negro who called himself

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, 903 ARCH STREET, PHILA. }

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

You have fought a good fight.

You have polled a larger vote than ever before; have reduced the Radical majority of 1866 by nearly one-half, and have proved the immortality of your principles and the vitality of your organization.

Radicalism has carried the State by means of the grossest outrages; by openly and corruptly buying thousands of voters; by driving from the polls foreign-born citizens regularly naturalized many years since; by rejecting the votes of thousands who were legally made citizens in the Court of Nisi Prius; by violating and trampling upon the seal of that Court—a recognized symbol of the law; by deterring legal voters from approaching the polls through threatened penalties for imaginary offences; and by the despotic and unscrupulous use of power by election officers in Radical Districts.

Under the specious charge of fraud upon your part, Radicalism has perpetrated the vilest frauds. Thousands of voters have been colonized, paupers assessed and voted, repeaters hired and voted five times in Radical precincts, returns of election altered and manipulated to suit their own purpose, and fraudulent naturalization papers issued by the ream.

In the contest just closed you have learned their capacity for violence and wrong, you have tested the strength of their organization and discovered the weak points in your own.

With the experience thus gained in the school of adversity, we will go forward to victory.

The enemy are yet to be taught that outrage and fraud, violence and wrong cannot be perpetrated with impunity; they have yet to learn that you are neither dismayed nor demoralized, and that in the pursuit of the right you know no such word as fail.

Arouse the people once more for the conflict. Bring to the polls every Democratic vote. For right and justice give back right and justice. For outrage and wrong return the full measure of swift retribution.

The work to be done is no holiday sport. It is the last battle for the salvation of the Republic the preservation of the Constitution and the supremacy of your race.

Work and fight as men engaged in such a cause should work and fight.

By order of the Democratic State Committee,

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

COVODE DEFEATED.

The notorious political trickster, the immaculate investigator, John Covode, who has, by the basest frauds ever perpetrated upon any community, been permitted heretofore to misrepresent the people of the Westmorland district, in Congress, was quietly shelved at the late election. But it was not his fault that this was done. He endeavored to repeat the infamous colonization of 1866, which secured his election, on a grander scale in 1868. All the scalawags in the political market were bought up by him and his agents, and shipped to convenient points to be used on the day of election. Fraud, bribery and corruption, in which subtle arts John is an acknowledged adept, were used to stifle the voice of the people, but the sturdy yeomanry of his district were determined to be disgraced no longer, and they went to work like true men and elected that gallant Democrat, Henry D. Foster in his place. We congratulate the people of the Twenty-first District, and, indeed, the people of the State, that they have rid themselves of this political nuisance. The "Alligator" is squelched! "Let us have peace."

PHILADELPHIA at the late election polled 4,522 more votes than New York city ever cast at any election, although the population of the latter is much greater than that of the former. Does this look like Radical colonization?

TO THE FRONT!

"It is a good thing to be a Democrat." We were never prouder of the name. We are especially proud to belong to the Democracy of Bedford county. It is an iron Democracy. It can neither be bent nor broken. Misrepresentation and falsehood cannot mislead it. Bribery and corruption fall harmless at its feet. Even John Cessna with all his boasted power, and with his unlimited corruption fund, ran only a few paltry votes ahead of his ticket.

To this gallant Democracy we say Once more to the front!

The battle we fight is for principle, for the liberty and free institutions of our fathers. Our enemies are the enemies of this liberty and of these institutions. Let us fight them manfully on the 3d of November as we did on the 13th of October.

BEHIND.

That enfant terrible of the Radical party, that dangerous man who was to "annihilate the Democratic majority in Bedford county," the Honorable John Cessna, runs behind the Radical State Ticket in this Congressional district, at least 100 votes. How are the mighty fallen! Time was when John ran thousands ahead of his party ticket, but now his prestige is gone, he gets through by "the skin of his teeth," and instead of giving strength to his party, as some people supposed he would, it required all the power of that party to prevent his ignominious defeat. No wonder John is so crabbed. He goeth about the streets, "scolding like a very drab." The idea of running 100 votes behind his ticket is very galling to the little fellow's pride. Poor John!

LIKE a dog to its vomit, the Radicals of this county return to their misrepresentations and falsehoods. Some of them, just now, are trying to make the people believe that the Democratic party are in favor of abolishing greenbacks, and that we printed an article to that effect. Of course nothing of the kind ever appeared in our columns, and a lie so absurd on its face, scarcely needs denial. Go on with your lying, gentlemen, it is your only stock in trade. But you will find in the future, as you have found in the past, that the Democracy cannot be fooled with such gudgeon bait as this.

The Democracy is the greenback party of the country. On this issue mainly we fight the present campaign. Twenty-six hundred millions of dollars are locked up in Government Bonds. This sum is incomprehensible and fabulous. It is nearly one third of the value of all the assessable property of the country, according to the census of 1860. It is more than the whole expense of the Government for fifty years before the war. Yet this immense sum is exempt from taxation, the bond-holders paying not one cent of taxes. The interest on these bonds is two hundred millions of dollars in gold every year, and this sum is paid by the people. Everybody helps to pay it except the bond-holders. The farmer, the merchant, the professional man, the laborer and the mechanic pay it. They pay it on their tea, coffee, tobacco, sugar and on everything they eat, drink and wear. The Democratic party say that the bondholders must be made help pay the taxes. The Democratic party demand that these bonds shall be paid off in greenbacks. The people would thus save two hundred millions of dollars gold interest annually. Is there anything wrong in this? Choose ye whom ye will serve.

SIXTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The following are the official majorities of the counties composing this Congressional district. Somerset as usual overrides the will of the people in the other four counties.

	Kimmell.	Cessna.
Adams	344
Bedford	326
Franklin	211
Fulton	320
Somerset		1345
	1201	1201
Cessna's majority,		144

LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

Below we give the vote for Representatives in this district. Of course Weller and Longenecker are elected by handsome majorities.

	Weller.	Longenecker.
Bedford	2623	2643
Somerset	3104	3202
Fulton	771	782
	6498	6627
	Wilson.	McGovern.
Bedford	3026	3005
Somerset	1912	1812
Fulton	1118	1120
	6056	5937

Weller over Wilson, 442, over McGovern, 561. Longenecker over Wilson, 571, over McGovern, 690.

GEN. MORGAN who was turned out of Congress because he was a Democrat, has been returned by his constituents by a large majority. Thus has a mongrel Congress been rebuked and a gallant soldier sustained by the people.

THE Radicals boast of carrying this county in November. These same chaps carried this district by a 1,000, in a horn!

STAND FIRM.

Local candidates and local causes brought out a vote on the Radical side, which will not be polled at the Presidential election. Besides, colonization from other States, was briskly carried on by the enemy. The meagre majority against us in Pennsylvania, was made up of imported New Yorkers, Jerseymen and Delawareans. On the first Tuesday of November, these carpet-baggers will be needed in their own States. Hence, if the Democrats poll as many votes as they did on the thirteenth of October, they will carry the State. Now, then, let us poll our full vote again, and redeem the Commonwealth. Stand firm!

VOTE FOR PRINCIPLES!

Democrats, our honor at least can be maintained. It is our duty to record our disapprobation of the outrageous curse of the Radical party and to rebuke the men who have changed our form of government and are seeking to faster upon the country the most odious oligarchy that ever cursed any nation. Let us perform that duty by going to the polls and voting for Seymour and Blair. Let us show to the world our steadiness of purpose, our unconquerable spirit, our determination to fight the good fight to the end.

"Freedom's battle once begun,
Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son,
Though often lost is ever won."

OFFICIAL MAJORITY.

We give below the official majorities for Auditor General, as far as received by telegraph. The counties marked with a star (*) are unofficial. In a few days we shall probably have the full official vote from every county in the State:

The Public Revenues.

The Radicals are much worried over Mr. Delmar's figures, showing how Radical extravagance is fast leading us to bankruptcy, and the New York Tribune and Times reply to his exposition with abuse—that only weapon now left them. Mr. Delmar's figures are drawn from the Treasury books. Will these papers show us where the figures are wrong? If the facts are against them, they cry out so much the worse for the facts. The country cannot longer be deceived. There is the patent, indisputable fact that the public debt is swelling month by month. The debt is growing, and at the same time the sources of public revenue are drying up. The South is not restored, politically or financially. That broad land is to be used as an "outrage market" for sensation purposes, and to keep the present profligate Congress in power. Even at the North trade declines, taxes press heavily on the poor, and no one is comfortable save the bloated recipient of Congressional bounty and the Republican office-holders. This is the system which must be swept away. There is no hope of a change until Congress shall be changed and the Jacobins turned out. When we are rid of them—the Radical leaders—we may hope for better days.—We cannot expect retrenchment and reform from desperate and inveterate spendthrifts; generous, not with their own, but other people's money. If we are ever to have back a free Constitution, it will not be from the perjured wretches who have openly "repudiated" it. We may not look for liberty from those who have stricken down the courts, and substituted military commissions for the jury trial; nor for peace from a party which confessedly thrives by public disorders, and systematically fans and promotes sectional hatreds as the surest means of perpetuating its power. They have no interest in bringing about peace, for with restored peace and harmony the Republican party would no longer have a pretext for its organization, or a policy for the future. The leaders are, therefore, in no hurry to sign their own death-warrant.—National Intelligencer.

Mrs. Mary L. Hutchison, the mother of the Hutchison family of singers, died of paralysis at Milford, New Hampshire, September 20, aged eighty-three. She was the mother of sixteen children, to whom the musical powers with which she was naturally gifted were generously transmitted.

The way women of "respectable appearance" go on a spree in Cincinnati is to take a hack ride from one saloon to another, taking a drink at each one without getting out. One brought up at the police station the other day with $300 in her pocket.

It is a favorite theory of the Radical party that the poor man pays no taxes; that because he does not, at annual periods, draw a check for so much money due the government for income tax, or tax on real estate, that therefore he is free from all burdens of this character. This view is proclaimed by Radical orators from the stump, and repeated in the journals of that party. But there was never a more erroneous position assumed or stated. In point of fact, the poor laboring man pays as much, if not more tax, in proportion, than the rich man. To be sure the tax is not direct, but is none the less certain and burdensome. As taxation is imposed upon land and money, the price of all kinds of goods advances. The laborer buying them at the retail store has to pay not only the original value of the thing, but all tax on it that has been paid at each stage by the manufacturer or importer, the wholesale dealer and the retail storekeeper. The tax is shifted from one to the other, with additions at each stage, until it comes to the customer—the one who buys the goods to use and not to sell. And here the burden rests; he must pay the whole accumulated amount of taxation, and get none of it back. As long as the goods are being sold and tranferred from hand to hand, so long the tax is kept shifting from one man to another; but when the article ceases to be turned over and becomes applied to the use for which it was designed, then the tax can be no further shifted. The man who wears the shirt pays the tax of the storekeeper who sold it, of the wholesale dealer who supplied it to the store, and of every man who has handled it, back to the cotton-factory millionaire in whose mills it was woven. As Jefferson says: "Taxation is like a ball rolling down stairs; it bumps on each step, but it finally rests on the lowest." That is the working man, and he therefore is the most deeply interested in having an honest, economical government in order that taxation may not enhance the volume of all he use sand supplies to his family. The Radicals are wasteful, extravagant, corrupt. They have increased debt and taxation, and will continue to do so. Is such a party entitled to the suppert of workingmen?—Age.

Thanksgiving Day Proclamation.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

In the year which is now drawing to its end the arts, the skill of the labor of the people of the United States, have been employed with greater diligence and vigor, and in broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the earth have been gathered into the granery and the storehouse in marvelous abundance. Our highways have been lengthened and new and prolific regions have been occupied. We are permitted to hope that the long protracted political and sectional dissensions are at no distant day to give place to returning harmony and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, while nations which are far off and which heretofore have been unsocial and exclusive have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility, which is crowned with so many blessings, is by universal consent a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing public devotion. I, therefore, recommend that Thursday, the 26th day of November next, be set apart and observed by all the people of the United States, as a day of public praise, thanksgiving and prayers, to the Almighty Creator and Divine Ruler of the universe, by whose ever watchful, merciful and gracious Providence alone, states and nations, no less than families and individuals do live and have their being.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 12th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1868, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-third.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

THE BALTIMORE SUN.—It affords us pleasure to notice the enlargement and improvement of this peerless newspaper in both its daily and weekly editions. As a newspaper the Daily Sun has but few equals and really no superiors in the United States. It is peculiarly the family or popular daily journal of the middle tier of States. Eschewing everything like intolerant partizan feeling, it has come to be looked up to as reliable authority and is taken by all parties without regard to political preferences. In its compendium of news it is preeminently catholic—omiting nothing of general interest—and presenting everytaing at the earliest moment. In its editorial conduct it is a model—discussing all practical subjects with freedom, but with a dignity and sense of propriety which are thoroughly understood. As an advertising medium the sun is unrivalled. What we say of the Daily Sun may with equal force be applied to the WEEKLY SUN, which indeed is a compendium of the dailies with the addition of some original matter. The daily is furuished at six dollars per year; and the weekly at one dollar and a half—with the same rates for shorter periods.

VOTING FOR PRESIDENT IN THE UNRECONSTRUCTED STATES.—President Johnson's order, as commander-in-chief, relative to the rights of all the States under the constitution to vote for the presidential electors without hindrance by the Military authorities in any of the unreconstructed States was issued from the Adjutant General's office in Washington on the 12th inst. It is announced as "by command of General Grant," and signed E. D. Townsend, Assistant Adjutant General. The Washington Star says that in rebpublican quarters it seems to be apprehended that in the States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas the conservatives will now make arrangements to choose presidential electors, and that there will be a demand that their votes be counted

S. D & H. W. SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGANS.—We have ourselves both seen and heard a large instrument of the above manufacture, which has been purchased by the Congregational Society of this place. It is a very superior instrument in the mechanical perfection of its various parts, and in the resemblance of its tones to those of a pipe organ, it is superior to any we have ever heard. It contains 5 sets of reeds and 14 stops, and is capable of a great variety of of expression, its softest tones being beautifully sweet and pure, while the stronger tones are delightfully full and sonorous. The reeds are so voiced that there is a marked difference in the qualities of tone can be used when desired, and when the whole are combined, a richer, grander volume of tone is produced than can be by other instruments not thus voiced. It is just what we should say that this Organ was selected by the committee, after a careful study and trail of the most celebrated reed organs, and is believed by them to posess more of the requisite quailities to make up a good itstrument, than any other kind of organ manufactured. These organs are manufactured by S. D. & H. W. Smith, at Boston, Mass.—Barton Standard.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, for November, ("Queen of the Monthlies,") we can assure our readers has no superior among the Lady's Magazines. The sweetest domestic group we have seen for many a day, smiles out from the fine steel plate in front of the present number. The colored fashion-plate is picturesque and elegant, while it is as faithful as ladies or modistes could ask; and the wood-cuts, giving full information in all departments of dress, and useful and ornamental patterns for the work-table, are beautifully executed, especially the Parisian Skating Costumes, in front. The literary department is as usual interesting and instructive. The prospectus for the next year contains unequaled inducements to new subscribers, and we advise our readers to send for a specimen number (which is furnished gratis), and avail themselves of the Publishers' magnificent offers. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year.

APPLETONS' ILLUSTRATED ALMANAC.—There are always plenty of almanacs issued every year, some worthless a few of temporary value, but any thing quite so unique, elegant, and valuable as Appletons' Almanac for 1869, now before us, we do not recollect having seen. The illustrations consist of twelve calander heads representing "American game birds and their haunts," twelve full page illustrations, suited to each individual month in the year, and twelve small landscapes. the contents are varied, pleasant, and of instrinsic value. Its attractions are enhanced by a sumptuously printed cover in colors. Published by APPLETON & Co., New York. Price 30 cents.

THE Musical World for October is received. Besides the usual large amount of valuable and instructive musical reading, the present number contains ten pages of choice new vocal and instrumental music, which would cost if purchased in sheet form, $1.25,—more than the subscription price for a year. The Musical World is the cheapest and best musical monthly published, and should be in the hands of every person interested in music. Terms $1.00 per annum. Specimen copies ten cents. Address the publishers, S. Brainard & Sons, Cleavland, O.

THE GALAXY, for November, has been received. Its contents are as follows: Cipher, a Novel, the story of a Hero; London Beggars; the picture of the World; a talk with Mr. Burlingame about China; the Ballad of the King's Bloodhound; Midge; Beechdale; The attempt at Strasbourg, as described by Louis Napoleon in a Letter to his Mother; Democratic Deities; by rail to the Rocky Mountains; two French Editors; Words and Their Uses; the Galaxy Miscellany; Drift-Wood; Literature and Art; Nebuiæ. The subscription price of THE GALAXY is $4 00 a year; invariably in advance. Subscriptions should be addressed to SHELDON & Co., 498 and 500 Broadway, New York.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—This popular Monthly Magazine gives more for the money than any in the world. For 1869, it will be greatly improved. It will contain one thousand pages, fourteen splendid steel plates, twelve mammoth fashion plates, twelve colored Berlin patterns, nine hundred wood cuts, twenty-four pages of music.

All this will be given for only two dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of the class of "Peterson." Address, post-paid, Charles J. Peterson, No. 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Specimens sent to those wishing to get up clubs.

GODEY.—The November number of this excellent magazine is before us. No lady is happy without this indispensable auxiliary to the drawing room. The steel engravings are superb, the fashion plates exquisite, while the literary matter is not excelled by any journal of the day.

LITTLE CORPORAL.—The Little Corporal for November has reached us in an entire new dress. This is the most entertaining publication for the young that is published in the country. $1.00 a year, by A. L. Sewell, Chicago, Ill. By subscribing now two numbers will be given gratis.

A young lady at Newport lost a thousand dollar ring. A young gentleman found it. On claiming the privilege of putting it on her finger himself the young lady assented, and held forth the fore finger of her left hand, the engagement ring finger. The young man was caught but did not flinch from his doom, as the young lady's papa is worth two millions.

The Good Templars have tackled Beecher for announcing that he "would rather have Grant drunk than Seymour sober."

A busy man is a locomotive, and life a track. Every night he drives into "the house," and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes switching off in one direction and then in another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use PLANTATION BITTERS, which are the ne plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

IMPORTANT TO ALL.—Those wishing pumps this fall would do well to leave their orders with Messrs. Rohm & Shuck now as they are ready to accommodate customers. Hurry up your orders, as winter is coming on, and these gentlemen, will not accommodate you with pumps this winter except in cases of special contract. Please be prompt.

It is suggested that Perkins was allowed to swing while the black villain was pardoned, because the negroes have cost us too much to be recklessly wasted on the gallows.

Game is very plentiful in Virginia, but in consequence of the damage to agricultural interests done by hunters, General Stoneman has issued an order to enforce the State game laws.

A Wisconsin paper tells of a compositor who died at his case, his last "take" being a notice of his own death.

The Wilmington, N. C., Journal says that the negroes in that city still continue their military drill.

NEW STATION HOUSE.—During a recent visit to Saxton we were pleased to note the improvements of the H. & B. T. Railroad, at that place. A new station house has been erected, which for beauty of architecture and convenience in every respect, far excells anything of the kind on the road. The railroad itself never was in better condition. Under the enterprising and gentlemanly management of Superintendent McKillips and others connected with the road, it could not be otherwise.

SALT RIVER TICKETS.—Some smart young Rads are circulating Salt River tickets for the Democrats. We are obliged to them. We won't use any. In the first place we are not going up those saline waters since John Cessna failed to annihilate the Democratic party in Bedford county; in the second place if we were going we would have our tickets printed in a Democratic concern. We would not want even so much of Radicalism about us on our voyage.

BROKE THROUGH A BRIDGE.—Mr. C. Stouffer of New Baltimore, while on his way home from Schellsburg, last week met with a serious accident. The horse which he was riding broke through a bridege near Beuna Vista, and in his efforts to extricact himself threw Mr. Stouffer. Both horse and rider were seriously hurt.

CORNERSTONE LAYING.—On Thursday the 22d inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M., the corner stone of the new Catholic church, now in process of erection, in this place, will be laid by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Domenec, Bishop of the Diocese, with appropriate ceremonies.

REGULATOR.—Go to the Regulator establishment if you want first-class boots and shoes, queensware, groceries, notions, underclothing, &c., &c. Irvine has just received the largest assortment of the above goods ever brought to Bedford, and purchasers should make it a point to give him a call.

IN the boudoir and the dressing-room one perfume reigns supreme. PHALON'S "FLOR DE MAYO," the new perfume for the handkerchief, has no rival in any home where tast presides. Sold by all druggists. oct23w2.

R. W. BERKSTRESSER & Co., have on hand the largest and best assortment of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, &c., in town. Give them a call.

GET THE BEST.—If you want to buy a sewing machine thaa has real merit over all others, go to C. Loyer and get one of Singer's New Family Machines. They are unquestionably the best article now mannfactured.

Go to Crouse's Resort for the best Navy, Congress, Cavendish, Oronoko, fine cuts and natural leaf tobacco in town.

TAKE NOTICE.—A superior article of coal oil, at Heckerman's drug store. 15 cts. a quart.

CROUSE'S Injin's the place to get the best segars, 3 for 5, 2 for 5, and 5 cents. Go see him.

Go to Berkstresser's for bargains.

Twenty-two convicts (four of them white) were received one day last week at the Mississippi Penitentiry, making the whole number 385. Before the war the number rarely if ever amounted to 100.

The Galveston, Texas, Enquirer says the freedmen are in a fair way of exterminating each other in that country.

John Bull still sticks to his beer.—The new hop and malt exchange erected in London cost over $700,000.

MARRIED.

MURIE—HORN—At the residence of J. B. Taylor, in Schellsburg, on Tuesday morning, 20th inst., by Rev. L. Shannon, Mr. David Murie, of Barton, Md., to Miss Amanda Horn, of the former place.

DIED.

LYNCH—On Sept. 13, Charles M. Lynch, aged 1 year 10 months and 16 days, and on Oct. 12, Susie M. Lynch, aged 4 years, children of Thomas and Margaret Lynch. Truly mysterious and sad are these providences of God. The unseen hand has again glided in and removed beautiful flowers from the family circle. Their little bodies rest side by side those dear ones that have gone before, but their spirits have entered the world of bliss. "What I do thou knowest not now but thou shalt know hereafter."

SHAFER—On Oct. 13, Maudie Shafer, daughter of Wm. and Margaret Shafer, aged 15 years 1 month and 7 days. The silver cord was at last snapped asunder and the golden bowl broken. A lovely daughter, just entering the bloom of womanhood, fell a victim to the relentless foe of consumption. She patiently awaited her end, and it came not unexpected to her, nor she unprepared for it. Sad to our mourning hearts to be called to part from her, yet her parting words should cheer and comfort us, and turn our mourning into joy. "Yea, tho' I walk through the dark valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

TEACHERS WANTED.—Eleven Teachers are wanted, to teach the common schools of Bedford tp. Directors will meet at Bedford Hotel, in Bedford borough, on Saturday, Oct. 31, for the purpose of articling with teachers.
By order of the Board of Directors.
oct23w2 THOS. GILCHRIEST, Sec'y.

TO BUILDERS.—Sealed proposals for the erection of three school houses in the township of Bedford, will be received by the undersigned, until Saturday, Nov. 28; one for the Tomlinson school, one for the Brush Run school and one for the Rea school. Plans and specifications can be seen by calling upon the undersigned. The material to be found by the purchaser. By order of the Board of Directors.

COURT PROCLAMATION.—To the Coroner, the Justices of the Peace, and Constables in the different Townships in the County of Bedford, Greeting: KNOW YE, that in pursuance of a precept to me directed, under the hand and seal of the Hon. ALEXANDER KING, President of the several Courts of Common Pleas, in the 16th District, consisting of the counties of Franklin, Fulton, Bedford and Somerset, and by virtue of his office of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery for the trial of capital and other offenders therein, and the General Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace; and G. W. GUMP, and WILLIAM G. EICHOLTZ, Judges of the same Court in the same County of Bedford, You and each of you, are hereby required to be and appear in your proper persons with your Records, Recognizances, Examinations, and other Remembrances, before the Judges aforesaid, at Bedford, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and General Quarter Sessions of the peace therein to be holden for the county of Bedford, aforesaid, on the 3rd Monday of Nov., (being the 16th day,) 1868, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, there and then to do those things to which your several offices appertain.

Given under my hand and seal the 23rd day of Oct., in the year of our Lord, 1868.

ST. LOUIS and IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. first Mortgage Bonds. February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,000,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the prospect of controling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, insures an enormous revenue. The Directors own 8-10 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.

THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.

We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. The revenue of the road will be large, and the administration of the affairs of the Company is in capable and experienced hands, and is entitled to the greatest confidence of the public.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

Sewing Machines.

THE GREAT AMERICAN COMBINATION
Button Hole Overseaming
AND
SEWING MACHINE.
Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing-machines, and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

BEING ABSOLUTELY THE BEST
FAMILY MACHINE
IN THE WORLD,
And Intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle or Lock-stitch, and the Overseaming and Button-hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes in the very best manner every variety of sewing, such as Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Overseams, Embroiders on the edge, and makes beautiful Button and Eyelet-holes in all fabrics.

Every Machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars, with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the Salesrooms of

FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.
CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

PUMPS! PUMPS!! PUMPS!!!
SYLVESTER G. MASON'S
DOUBLE-ACTING. NON-FREEZIN
FORCE PUMP,

Patented August 28th, 1866, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.

The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping back to the level with the water in the well. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose

This valuable pump is now offered to the public at the following prices:

Three-quarter in. Pump.		Inch Pump.
From 7 to 10 ft.	$15 00	From 7 to 10 ft.	$17 00
